III - ACTIVITIES

Item No. 11:

✓Electronic Industries Association of Japan:

Registrant and/or staff reviewed, analyzed and reported on U.S. trade, market, industry developments respecting consumer electronic products, semiconductors and computers based on newspapers, trade publications, studies by private consultants, U.S. government publications, and discussions with experts.

More specifically, subject matters included developments respecting various litigation involving television receivers from Japan, importers petition seeking revocation of antidumping duty order on imports of television receivers from Japan, etc.

On April 30 through May 2, registrant accompanied Hon. Kazuo Aichi in meeting with members of Congress for an inter-parliamentary exchange of views on trade issues and promotion of understanding in U.S.-Japan relations and assisted him as an interpreter and provided informational background on specific trade developments to assist Mr. Aichi in his discussions with members of Congress including Congressmen Maguire, Wolff,

J. Jones, Vander Jagt, Corman, Frenzel, Conable, Findley, Moorehead, Downey, and Senators Baucus and Tsongas. Also accompanied Dr. Kubo and Professor Karatsu, representatives of the Association, in meetings with Congressmen Wolff, Vander Jagt, and Frenzel, and assisted them in interpreting and offering informational assistance.

In addition, on behalf of the Association, participated in discussion of the subject matter to be included in a joint research program to be undertaken respecting U.S.-Japan trade in semiconductors undertaken jointly by selected professors of Stanford University and Tokyo University held at Stanford University, May 21-22, 1980.

Registrant and staff researched, drafted and filed a statement before the Trade Subcommittee of House Ways and Means Committee and registrant testified before same on October 14, 1980 at public hearings held in San Diego, California respecting quality control practices of Japanese electronic manufacturers and Japanese-investor owned facilities in the U.S. and its implications with respect to productivity, inflation and competitiveness.

✓ Japan Automobile Manufacturers Association:

On the basis of review of trade publications and press and media informational flow and monitoring of public hearings on matters relating automobiles, registrant and/or staff furnished summary reviews of developments both here in Washington and elsewhere in the United States of interests to the client and its members.

In addition, registrant furnished legal advice respecting various federal statutes of interest to the client including the escape clause procedure of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979.

Subject matters reported on by registrant and/or staff include developments within the U.S. auto industry, labor union activities, and U.S. government relations with the Japanese government respecting the automobile issue.

✓ Japan Fisheries Association:

Registrant and/or staff provided informational services which include reporting on development in the U.S. fishing industry and with respect to U.S. fishery policy particularly as they relate to foreign fishing within the 200 mile zone. Connection with this principal was terminated on August 20, 1980.

✓ Japan Trade Center:

Registrant furnished legal and informational services respecting developments of interest to the client including the U.S. bicycle industry and developments in U.S. exports and imports of bicycles and parts thereof.

✓ Embassy of Japan:

Registrant and/or staff rendered legal and informational services respecting significant developments in trade-related problems involving Japan including developments in the electronic trade, autos, and other products. In addition, legal informational services have been rendered with respect to the interpretation of certain provisions of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 including the dumping and countervailing provisions.

Further, registrant and/or staff provided legal services respecting pending tax measures in Congress and existing tax provisions.

✓Bridgestone Tire Co., Ltd:

Registrant and/or staff provided legal and informational services on significant developments in the United States which may impact upon the client's commercial interest including developments in the auto industry such as the filing of the escape clause action and its implications with respect to the trade picture in autos next year.

Reported on the developments in the U.S. tire industry including identification of tire manufacturing facilities and plant closures as well as counseling with respect to outlook for the future in U.S.-Japan trade relation generally.

Legal counseling with respect to escape clause procedures Trade Agreements Act of 1979 and providing a review of Congressional developments. No representational activities were undertaken on behalf of principal by registrant and/or staff during this period.

✓U.S. Japan Trade Council:

Registrant and/or staff orally furnished information and advice in response to Council inquiries respecting the status of various pending antidumping and escape clause cases and trade-related litigation including the television cases.
